KARAKOL WALKING TOUR

Experience the best of Karakol. Explore its colorful streets, vibrant markets and favorite local spots. Get under the surface to understand what makes Karakol unique in Kyrgyzstan and how the city became the mixing bowl of cultures, cuisines and peoples you see today.

With this walking tour you will have an opportunity to learn the stories behind Karakol town's main sites - the Dungan Mosque, Russian Orthodox Church and Bugu Bazaar and all the other little-known sites and details you should not miss. Through your guide's historical and personal stories, you'll discover—or rediscover—Karakol's unique and rich character during your visit. And, you'll have an insider's connection to local life and favorite spots in the town.

Our tour is a great orientation to Karakol and all it has to offer!

NOTE: This donation-based Karakol Walking Tour is offered by Destination Karakol. A portion of the donations earned on this tour goes to supporting its work as a social enterprise that engages in community activities and in supporting tourism development in the city.

Recommended donation is 200 KGS/person.

*Average tour length. The Karakol Walking Tour usually ends in Bugu Bazaar. Participants then have the option to stay on to enjoy a bowl of Ashlan-fu, a favorite local specialty.
